

The National Drug Research Institute invites you to an event marking the occasion of

NAIDOC WEEK 2010

Tuesday 6th July 2010 from 12.00pm onwards

National Drug Research Institute (NDRI)
Curtin University of Technology, Health Research Campus
10 Selby Street, Shenton Park, WA 6008

*Please join NDRI staff, colleagues, family and friends for an informal lunch and celebration of Aboriginal culture, followed by a seminar examining the 'areas of greatest need'
for Indigenous Australians.*

12.00pm BBQ lunch and entertainment

Featuring traditional Noongar dance by the Wilyak dancers and cultural event led by Associate Professor Ted Wilkes

1.30pm Seminar: Identifying areas of need for Indigenous people affected by alcohol and other drug problems

Findings from the 'Identifying Areas of Greatest Need in Indigenous Substance Misuse Intervention' project will be presented, detailing:

- current alcohol and other drug services for Indigenous Australians;*
- funding of those services;*
- the appropriateness of current services and funding for them; and*
- the identification and assessment of unmet needs.*

3.00pm Afternoon tea

Please RSVP by telephoning NDRI Reception on (08) 9266 1600 or emailing ndri@curtin.edu.au by Friday 2nd July 2010

(In the event of bad weather, lunch and entertainment will take place indoors)

© Tommy Bung Bung